Submission of Manuscripts

PLEASE DO NOT write directly to the editors. Sending manuscripts directly to editors will only delay consideration.

Authors, please submit articles to

Journal of Human Resources
Social Science Building
University of Wisconsin
1180 Observatory Drive
Madison, WI 53706

telephone (608) 262-4867
facsimile (608) 262-6290

Please submit five copies of each manuscript. They must be single-sided, double-spaced, and with generous margins. They must be in 12 point type or larger.

An abstract of no more than 100 words must accompany each article.

Author name(s), institutional affiliations, and acknowledgments should appear only on the title page of the manuscript to facilitate blind-blind reviewing.

JHR* Policy on Replication and Data Availability

1. Manuscripts submitted to the JHR will be judged in part by whether they have reconciled their empirical results with already published work on the same topic.
2. Authors of accepted manuscripts will be asked to make their data available to other analysts from a date six months after JHR publication for a period of three years thereafter. Exemption from this requirement may be requested.
3. The JHR welcomes replication, fragility, and sensitivity studies of empirical work that has appeared in the JHR in the last five years or empirical work judged by the editors to be important to the fields covered by the JHR.
4. A more detailed statement is available from the Managing Editor, Social Science Building, University of Wisconsin, 1180 Observatory Drive, Madison, WI 53706 or through electronic mail at THAL@SSC.WISC.EDU

Errata

We apologize for errors in two equations in the article by Lars Osberg and Kuan Xu, "Title: International Comparisons of Poverty Intensity: Index Decomposition and Bootstrap Inference." The correct equations, to replace those currently on page 55 are:

$$(8) \ln(P(Y; z)) = \ln(RATE) + \ln(GAP) + \ln(1 + G(X)).$$

$$(9) \Delta \ln P(Y; z) = \Delta \ln(RATE) + \Delta \ln(GAP) + \Delta \ln(1 + G(X)).$$
